

Join Leadership Greater Hartford for our 2011 series highlighting the people and places that make our community special

Leadership Greater Hartford Day at Vintage Base Ball

Saturday, August 20, 2011

Times: 10:30am & 12:30pm

Doubleheader followed by Tours of Colt Dome or Armsmear

Location: Colt Park, Hartford

The Friends of Vintage Base Ball promotes living history by bringing the 19th century to life through Civil War era base ball. Hartford Base Ball Grounds at Colt Meadows is contained within the Coltsville district in Hartford, which is a National Historic Landmark and is on its way to becoming a National Park.

You provide the lawn chairs, blanket and sunscreen – we'll provide the fun, a picnic lunch and a tour!
Sign up today!

Leadership Greater Hartford Members Free

All Others $10 adults/$5 kids (Covers food, beverage and tour)

Register online at www.leadershipgh.org or call Maggie Irving at 860.951.6161 x15 or email at Maggie.Irving@leadershipgh.org.

The Hartford Base Ball Grounds at Colt Meadows is located at 8 Hendricxsen Avenue in Hartford (06106). Parking is free in the surface lot across the street.

Using your smart phone barcode application, scan the QR Code to the left to learn more about Friends of Vintage Base Ball

www.friendsofvintagebaseball.org