A LEADERSHIP PROGRAM FOR ADVANCED LEADERS

SUMMIT: A SHARED JOURNEY TOWARD HIGHER IMPACT & PURPOSE

SUMMIT, a premier program being offered by Leadership Greater Hartford in association with The Clarion Group, provides a powerful leadership development experience for a diverse group of advanced leaders.

We are inviting you to join 15 to 20 senior-level executives from many sectors in the region in pursuit of individual, organizational and collective goals.

We believe that extraordinary leaders build extraordinary organizations and contribute to extraordinary communities. SUMMIT creates an environment where you and your peers can focus your abilities and values, and support each other in developing ideas and actions that will help you and your organization make a difference in the broader community. The outcomes of SUMMIT will be enhanced performance, personal growth and sustainable benefits to you, your organization and the community.

PROGRAM ACTIVITIES AND PROPOSED SCHEDULE

APRIL 2011

ONE AND ONE-HALF DAY OFFSITE EVENT

- Explore the new imperatives for advanced leaders such as you who will move your organization, your community, our nation and our world toward innovative, inclusive and inspiring futures. You will share an intimate conversation with a nationally known figure who will challenge outdated views of leadership and stimulate you to reframe your own leadership development.
- Enhance your self-awareness in ways that lead to improved performance. You will engage in experiential exercises to introduce you to The Clarion Group's 4Cs leadership model: competencies, characteristics, capacities, and core motivations.
- Think "out of the building." You will interact with local leaders from the business, corporate, nonprofit, educational, and government sectors to understand the systemic challenges facing the Greater Hartford region and will identify those issues that most inspire you to make a difference.
- Expand your perspective. You will develop an understanding of the "New Commons," a global, diverse and complex "space" where leaders share responsibility for making a positive difference in the community. You will begin the process of developing a personal plan focused on new directions you wish to pursue.

MAY 2011

ONE-DAY COMMUNITY FIELD EXPERIENCE

- A hands-on exploration of the high interest community issues identified in the April offsite event.
- A structured debriefing focusing on ways you and your organization can mobilize to address the community concerns.

JUNE, SEPT. & NOV. 2011 JANUARY, MARCH 2012

FIVE FACILITATED THREE-HOUR BREAKFAST MEETINGS WILL PROVIDE

- On-going reflection, discussion, support, and continued exploration of leadership and community issues identified earlier.
- Specific strategies to help you lead positive change in your organization and the community.
- Individual coaching and organizational role models from the region for guidance and inspiration.
- Successful examples of community engagement undertaken by you and your organization.
- Continuous opportunities for strengthening connections between you and your peers.
